Georgetown Hoyas Elite Lacrosse Camp

GEORGETOWN HOYAS ELITE CAMP

The Georgetown Hoyas Elite Camp is specifically designed for motivated and experienced lacrosse players who are looking to prepare themselves for the next level. Training sessions will be intense and challenging, and will provide campers with plenty of "hands-on" coaching by our experienced staff. Campers will also have daily opportunities to scrimmage and participate in game situations.

The camp will run from June 29 - July 1, 2008, and is designed for experienced players entering grades 10-12. Graduated high school seniors are welcome as well.

A typical day will consist of skill sessions, team concepts/situational play, competition, small-sided games and tournament play.

GEORGETOWN HOYAS GOALIE PROGRAM

Two goalie training sessions will be taught by Trish Dabrowski, Johns Hopkins Assistant Coach. The program will run in conjunction with the Hoyas Elite Camp. Goalies will also be assigned to all scrimmage situations and placed on a team during tournament play. Goalies must supply their own equipment.

FACILITIES

Campers will have access to sport turf, astro turf and grass fields for all training and games. Meals will be served by Georgetown dining services on campus. Campers will be housed in on campus dormitories.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation will be available for the Georgetown Hoyas Elite campers arriving into Reagan Airport, BWI Airport, and Union Train Station. The cost for transportation will be $20 for campers.
